Yehovaw's Justice

Deep within the heart of every child of Yehovaw lies His keen sense of justice! When people see a man serving His community faithfully, they pour from out of their hearts and substance a tribute worthy of that service; and, when an atrocity has been committed, people cling to the hope of the one or more who committed it receiving their just punishment!

In certain instances of His communicating with the children of Israel, Yehovaw combined, as closely relating, the terms "justice" and "judgment" (Genesis 18:19), both of which help to show the kind of Person He is!

Yehovaw is a God of justice; and that almighty sense of what is just or right throughout His kingdom is shown to His children through the commandments and judgments of His toraw or law - His commandments showing what is right, His judgments showing His rewards for doing right and His punishments for doing wrong!

Yehovaw's judgments restore what is good and just by returning to each of His children whatever he or she has given to another, good for good and evil for evil, which explains why His judgments are so highly regarded among the children of Israel! (Psalm 19:9 to 11)

Yehovaw is good (Matthew 19:17) and the personification of love toward His children; because He is just! And He insists that His children be likewise good, loving and just, for them to remain in His glorious and eternal kingdom of life, blessing, liberty, joy and power! (Deuteronomy 30:19)

When Yehovaw's Children insist on being evil and unjust, hating Him and His children and taking from them their possessions without their agreement in the matter (Exodus 22:1 and 4), destroying their property without compensating them for it (Verse 6) or injuring them in any way (Exodus 21:23 to 25), He calls that hateful conduct "sin"! He wrote, through His faithful apostle:

Yehovaw's Justice

Sin is the transgression of the law! (1st John 3:4)

To keep His kingdom the glorious reflection of His good and loving justice, Yehovaw removes from it "all things that offend and them who do iniquity" (Matthew 13:41), as He removed Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden, when they disobeyed Him and ate the fruit of the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil! (Genesis 3:22 and 23)

But, since "all have sinned and come short of the glory of God" (Romans 3:23), virtually all of Yehovaw's children would be left out of His kingdom of life and blessing (Deuteronomy 30:19) and on their way to the death and cursing of Hell (Verse 19; Psalm 88) followed by His "everlasting fire, prepared for the Devil and his angels" (Matthew 25:40), which is none other than His "Lake of Fire"! (Revelation 20:15)

Part of Yehovaw's justice is His mercy, by which He returns mercy to the merciful! He said, through Yeshuaw:

³⁶Be ye ... merciful, as your Father also is merciful; ³⁷Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven! (Luke 6:36 and 37)

So long as any child of Yehovaw is still living on Earth, he or she can decide to be merciful, by restoring repentant neighbors to his or her fellowship, house or kingdom! And, even before an enemy repents, one can love, bless, do good to and pray for him or her, which Yehovaw regards as conduct worthy of His children! (Matthew 5:44 and 45) For, even while Yeshuaw hung on the cross of His murderers, He prayed:

Father, forgive them: for they know not what they do! (Luke 23:34)

Every child of Yehovaw who follows that amazing example of Yeshuaw is forgiven by Yehovaw and restored to His glorious and eternal kingdom (Matthew 6:14), which forgiveness is the ultimate expression of His justice by both Himself as Father and by His child!

Following are examples of how Yehovaw's attribute of justice is handled in His Holy Bible, the challenge to His child being to remain on the good side of His justice, primarily by keeping or putting the highest possible value on the commandments of His toraw or law and availing himself or herself of His mercy! (Exodus 20:6; John 15:13 and 14)

Genesis 18:19 Doing Justice

I know him, that he will command his children and his household after him; and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgment, that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which He hath spoken of him. (Genesis 18:19)
