Yehovaw's Law

Within mankind's affairs, law is understood to be the authority that a citizen, monarch or governor either has naturally or that he or she has had delegated to him or her by another! It is the power to enforce what he or she has said or written!

In making reference to what any citizen has "naturally", we touch upon that which Yehovaw has given each of His children, as recorded in the Book of Genesis in His book of books, the Holy Bible:

<sup>27</sup>God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them! <sup>28</sup>And God blessed them; and God said, unto them, Be fruitful and multiply, replenish the Earth, subdue it and have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the fowl of the air and over every living thing that moveth upon the Earth! (Genesis 1:27 and 28)

In the above passage, the word "dominion" (Genesis 1:28) is a King James translation of a word meaning "to tread down", "subjugate" or "to crumble off"! (Strong: Hebrew: 7287) Throughout the Old Testament it is translated "have dominion, prevail against, reign, rule, overtake"! (7287)

Giving to this language the reverence due it as the word of Yehovaw, the holy, almighty, eternal and self-existent Creator and Lord God over all the universe, one must conclude that His will for the children of Israel is that they be rulers! For having dominion "over every living thing that moveth upon the Earth" (Genesis 1:28) is exactly what a ruler is!

So long as mankind can remember, someone has always been bolder than others in using his or her dominion, gathering support from some and using them to hurt those who do not support him or her; and the will and words of such a leader become regarded as "the Law of the Land"!

But the long history of nations in which such rule has been established has well demonstrated the inability of any ruler, whether king or president, to solve the problems that have been relentlessly overwhelming mankind! Yehovaw said, through Yeshuaw:

In vain they do worship Me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men!
(Matthew 15:9)

Without Me ye can do nothing! (John 15:5)

The reason I have so carefully qualified mankind's amazing dominion is, simply, that anyone not identified as a child of Israel is without ha Kodesh Ruakh, Yehovaw's Holy Spirit, by Whom and only by Whom one is able to rule effectively over anything, himself included! Yehovaw said, through His prophet, of the children of Israel:

Kings shall be thy nursing fathers and their queens thy nursing mothers! They shall bow down, to thee, with their face toward the Earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet! And thou shalt know that I am the Lord! For they shall not be ashamed who wait for Me! (Isaiah 49:23)

Yehovaw said, through Yeshuaw, through His faithful apostle John:

<sup>26</sup>He who overcometh and keepeth My works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations! <sup>27</sup>And he shall rule them with a rod of iron! As the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers, even as I received of My Father!
(Revelation 2:26 and 27)

So we see that law is the power to enforce one's will upon Earth according to the sovereignty that Yehovaw has given His children and continues to give them "over every living thing that moveth upon the Earth"! (Genesis 1:28) And He patiently awaits our choice of what to do with our power to enforce before deciding what He wants to enforce with us!

Dominion relates to the desire of the ruler! But desire alone does not fulfill the idea of dominion: for the enforcement of one's desire or causing it to happen is the element in that picture without which the entire idea of dominion collapses!

To illustrate how the human dominion works, Yehovaw gave, through Yeshuaw, to His disciples, this fascinating instruction:

Whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed and be thou cast into the sea, and shall not doubt in his heart but shall believe that those things that he saith shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he saith! (Mark 11:23)

The most obvious thing about that astounding statement is the fact that moving a mountain into the sea is a task beyond the immediate strength or resources of any one person! So one is obliged to infer, from Yehovaw's words through Yeshuaw, that ha Kodesh Ruakh, His Spirit of power and truth, the One Who put the mountain there in the first place and Who keeps its atoms spinning at the rate of an hundred eighty-six thousand miles per second, is the key to this being an exercise of man's dominion in contrast to his indulging in mere wishful thinking!

In the verse immediately preceding Yehovaw's description through Yeshuaw of how the human dominion works (Mark 11:22), He said, through Yeshuaw, "Have faith in God!" (Mark 11:22) So one is obliged to see that Yehovaw's description through Yeshuaw of the human dominion immediately following that commandment relates directly to having "faith in God" (Verse 22) and that it is His Spirit Who would be moving the mountain!

Faith is, simply, one's believing a thing to be so true that he or she acts upon that truth; and, when a child of Israel speaks to something, commanding that it do something or that something be done to it, not doubting in his or her heart but believing "that those things that he saith shall come to pass, he shall have whatsoever he saith"! (Mark 11:23) By the authority of Yehovaw's word, His child's word is law!

The simple fact is that, without Yehovaw's faith to activate it, one's dominion is no dominion at all but merely wishful thinking!

When Yeshuaw said, "Let there be light" (Genesis 1:3), He could not doubt in His heart that the idea of bringing light into being was that of Yehovaw the Father and that His Spirit of power and truth would bring to pass "whatsoever He saith"! (Mark 11:23)

Yehovaw is a God of faith! He wrote, through His author:

Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things that do appear! (Hebrews 11:3)

Having created His children "in the image of God"(Genesis 1:27), Yehovaw fully intended that they function in His faith as well, bringing His gift of a dominion over Earth into its richest fulfillment!

But, when a child of Israel exercises his or her dominion, it must be according to Yehovaw's will; or all kinds of adverse repercussions will ensue, from that exercise; because only He knows what will bless or curse His child, according to how the child's action relates to Yehovaw's righteous nature, either in agreement with it or contrary to it.

Therein lies the bottom line of what Yehovaw's law is all about! For it is His righteous nature to behave in a certain way, "yesterday, today and for ever"! (Hebrews 13:8) And

He has expressed that way in terms of specific commandments addressing every conceivable action by His children!

Yehovaw has the infinite power by which to enforce His nature upon His creation, showing His resistance to Human wills moving against that nature with increasing severity and immediately removing from His glorious and eternal kingdom of life and blessing (Deuteronomy 30:19; Matthew 19:17) any child who has adequately demonstrated his or her will to defy Yehovaw's toraw or law!

The commandments of Yehovaw's toraw or law are an immutable fact of His existence, which makes of the apostle Paul's conjecture about there being a time when he was "without the law" (Romans 7:9) an utterly ludicrous notion!

Yehovaw's word for "law" in Hebrew is "tor-aw' " (Strong: Hebrew: 8451) So I choose to use that word whenever possible! Specifically, that word relates to the first five books of Yehovaw's Holy Bible, although His entire book contains expressions of His toraw, to reinforce the commandments He expressed through Moses in His toraw.

From out of Yehovaw's love for His righteous children, who are the children of Israel, has come His covenant with them, by which proposal or contract He has invited them to consider His toraw or law, as He has expressed it through various commandments, which covenant, if accepted, includes those commandments as His requirements along with His promises of judgment, whether of His blessing or cursing, in His Judgment of Intent, or His rewards or punishments, in His Judgment of Action, according to how His children have conducted themselves in relation to that covenant!

But for those of Yehovaw's children who have refused to accept His covenant or, having accepted it, have deliberately violated it, His law becomes His "rod of iron" (Psalm 2:9), becoming the instrument of His wrath upon them for their failure to recognize and honor His worthiness not only as their Creator but as their ongoing sustainer, friend, protector and provider, which worthiness Yeshuaw ha Mawshiyakh came to Earth to teach and demonstrate! The English speaking world calls Him "Jesus" (Matthew 1:21) "the Christ"! (Matthew 16:20)

Yehovaw's toraw or law gives us an amazing picture of what kind of Creator and Lord God we have, what He wants of us and what He will do for or against us, when we respond to that knowledge, either appropriately or otherwise! And every one of us has had that knowledge from birth (Psalm 22:10; Matthew 18:6), the problem being how far afield we have gone from recognizing or acting in accord with it, even as it was with Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden!

Amen! Alleluia!
